

1.2 Going, Going, Gone!

Extension Activity

How I Am Being Assessed _____

_____

_____

Endangered Species

The following species are considered endangered somewhere in Canada:

Species	Type
beluga whale	mammal
American marten	mammal
swift fox	mammal
wolverine	mammal
Henslow's sparrow	bird
Acadian flycatcher	bird
barn owl	bird
burrowing owl	bird
Kirtland's warbler	bird
piping plover	bird
Aurora trout	fish
Salish sucker	fish
Atlantic whitefish	fish
wood poppy	plant
Southern maidenhair fern	plant
red mulberry	plant
American ginseng	plant
leatherback turtle	reptile northern cricket frog	amphibian sharp-tailed snake	reptile northern riffleshell	mullosc

Work the Web

Choose one species to research, and find the information to complete the following table. Visit www.science.nelson.com and follow the links from Science 10: Concepts and Connections, 1.2, to help in your research.

www.sara.registry.ga.ca (species at risk)

Endangered species
Year designated as endangered
Location
Current status
Causes for decline in population(s)
Efforts to protect and recover population(s)	